ENGAGE

PHILANTHROPY
AT THE PHILLIPS
COLLECTION

The Phillips Collection

Our founder, Duncan Phillips, was truly ahead of his time. He envisioned The Phillips Collection as a gathering place for creative dialogue, not a one-way conversation. His dream was to create a place where people and art connect, “an intimate museum combined with an experiment station.” At the Phillips, we continue to harness the might of our world-class collection to foster global conversations not only about art, but also about well-being, creativity, and civic responsibility.

Our promise to you is to be good stewards of your generosity, to engage you as an ambassador of the museum, and to create meaningful opportunities that reflect your personal passions and interests.

Thank you for being a part of Duncan Phillips’s living legacy.

Warm regards,

Dani Levinas
Chairman of the Board of Trustees

Dorothy Kosinski, PhD
Director

INCREASE YOUR IMPACT

Your passion and generosity help sustain the Phillips as an exceptional collection of modern and contemporary art, as well as an experiment station that fosters curiosity, innovation, scholarship, and public engagement.

Our Director’s, Capitol, and Chairman’s Circles are recognized for their special support of the Phillips. Through charitable contributions, donors at these levels ensure the museum’s continued dedication to excellence and its strong and dynamic future. We would like to extend our particular gratitude to our Circles members.
