

Through our newly redesigned Phillips Travel program, members traveled with the Phillips to Miami Beach, New Orleans, New York City, and Philadelphia, just in the last year! The three exclusive experiences that anchor Phillips Travel—Phillips in the Field, Circles Tours, and Phillips Abroad—continue to offer opportunities to discover connection and community, through the embrace of curiosity and an expanding global perspective.

Members of varying levels can look forward to domestic and international trips, as well as unique opportunities to meet Phillips Collection senior leadership and curators at art fairs, exhibitions, and on the road. Join us in our upcoming season of travel!

PHILLIPS IN THE FIELD

Engage with the Phillips across the United States! Join members of The Phillips Collection's leadership and curatorial team for private, expert-led experiences at Art Fairs or special exhibitions. Phillips in the Field excursions, with the exception of Art Basel Miami Beach, are limited to no more than 10 participants to ensure intimate experiences.

Fair admission, travel, and accommodation to be arranged by participants.

Open to Explorer Friends (annual gift of $1,200) and above. Additional Phillips in the Field trips may be arranged.

SEPTEMBER 4, 2025

New York City and The Armory Show

If you are attending the fair, meet Camille Brown, Associate Curator at The Phillips Collection, at the Armory Show on Thursday, September 4, to explore this cornerstone of New York's art scene. Join her for an exclusive Phillips gathering following the tour.

DECEMBER 3 – 6, 2025

Miami Beach and Art Basel*

Dive deep into this iconic contemporary art fair with Vradenburg Director & CEO Jonathan Binstock and Curator of Global Contemporary Art Tie Jojima, plus enjoy two exclusive Phillips gatherings on Thursday and Friday.

Contemporaries ($500) members are invited to join this special experience.*

CIRCLES TOUR

Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas

MARCH 5-8, 2026

This bespoke Circles Tour offers a deeper look into the vibrant art scene of Dallas and Fort Worth, made up of incredible museums, art galleries, and remarkable private collections. These institutions and collectors intertwine to create an exciting landscape of modern and contemporary art, ready for exploration.

Highlights will include special visits to the Kimbell Art Museum and the Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth—two institutions akin to the Phillips, dedicated to excellence and community engagement—as well as a tour of the Meadows Art Museum to view their Spanish holdings, including works by Pablo Picasso, Joan Miró, Juan Gris, and Francisco de Goya: a perfect precursor to the late March opening of Miró and the United States at the Phillips. Complemented by Dallas's dynamic food scene and accommodations at a luxurious downtown retreat, don't miss this opportunity to connect with your fellow Circles members—discovering Dallas and Fort Worth with experts from The Phillips Collection!

Program and accommodation to be arranged by the Phillips; travel to be arranged by participants. | Sign-ups begin in September for our Circles members. Invitation to Circles Tours begins at the Insider Circle level (annual gift of $5,000).
