

This summer's Phillips Stateside offers an exclusive look into the vibrant art scene of Santa Fe, including an exploration of the iconic Indian Market, complimented by intimate tours, studio visits, and expert guidance from The Phillips Collection's Vradenburg Director & CEO Jonathan P. Binstock. Itinerary as of April 10, 2026. Subject to change.

DAY 1: TUESDAY, AUGUST 11

Arrive in Santa Fe by 4 pm in the afternoon and check in at the iconic downtown Hotel Santa Fe, the only Native American owned hotel in the city. We'll head to the iconic Coyote Cafe for Native Currents, a cocktail reception hosted by the Walker Youngbird Foundation, founded by Trustee Reid Walker.

DAY 2: WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 12*

A full-day immersion into the art of Charles Ross awaits us today. Our morning will be spent with the Ross and his artist spouse Jill O'Brien on a guided visit to Ross's nearly completed earthwork Star Axis. After lunch, our afternoon includes visits to their studios in Las Vegas, NM, and the Dwan Light Sanctuary. After returning to the hotel to refresh, enjoy an evening group dinner.

DAY 3: THURSDAY, AUGUST 13

Our day explores the life and practice of Georgia O'Keeffe. We begin with a visit to Georgia O'Keeffe's home and studio in Abiquiu, with lunch to follow. Then, we'll continue on for an enchanting look at Ghost Ranch, O'Keeffe's 21,000-acre summer retreat that sparked inspiration for much of her work. After returning to the hotel to freshen up, we will reconvene for a cocktail reception at the home of Trustee Emerita Lynne Horning.

DAY 4: FRIDAY, AUGUST 14*

Friday is a full day of immersion in the Santa Fe Indian Market! We'll enjoy a later start this morning, beginning our day with a visit to the Santa Fe Indian Market Best in Show event and Luncheon, followed by the Sneak Peek. A studio visit in downtown Santa Fe will round out our Friday as a group. The evening is yours to enjoy the hotel or dinner downtown!

DAY 5: SATURDAY, AUGUST 15

Our final day in Santa Fe begins with a special visit to the IAIA Museum of Contemporary Native Arts. On our way to lunch, we will visit the famed Loretto Chapel Museum. Following our group lunch, we will explore the weekly Santa Fe Artist's Market located in the Railyard Arts Market. After a stop or two at local galleries, we'll head back to the hotel. Our evening concludes with a farewell dinner.

DAY 6: SUNDAY, AUGUST 16

Departures at leisure throughout the day or extend your stay to explore more of Santa Fe's vibrant art and cultural scene.

*Alternatively, on Wednesday attend the 2026 Annual Benefit and Auction of the Institute of American Indian Arts (IAIA) or on Friday attend the 2026 Annual Gala of the Southwestern Association for Indian Arts (SWAIA). Please note these optional events require separate arrangements and an additional sponsorship commitment. Email travel@phillipscollection.org for more information.

RATES

Your trip includes all programming and activities, all tours and guides, group meals (5 breakfasts, 4 lunches, 2 dinners, and 2 receptions), transportation within Santa Fe*, and five nights in the iconic Hotel Santa Fe, the only Native American-owned hotel in the downtown area.

$6,400 per person, double occupancy. Single supplement of $1,000. $1,000 per person non-refundable deposit due at registration. Remainder due by July 11, 2026.

*Transportation to and from Santa Fe not included.

Final itinerary will be emailed to all registrants two weeks before the trip.