

UPDATED 3/13/2020

Dear friends, guests, staff and volunteers,

The Phillips Collection will be closed to the public starting Saturday, March 14.

The health and wellbeing of our community, visitors, and employees, is a top priority for the Phillips Collection. For this reason, as a health precaution, both our locations at 21st Street and Phillips@THEARC will be closed to the public starting Saturday, March 14- through Friday, April 3. We will continue to monitor and reassess future event plans on an ongoing basis as the situation continues to develop. If you have already purchased tickets for an upcoming event, refunds are available upon request by emailing reservations@phillipscollection.org.

To the extent possible, we will be offering programming online through our website and social media channels. All updates will be communicated via email, social media channels, and posted on our website.

We appreciate your understanding as we all navigate this rapidly evolving situation. The Phillips was founded on the principles of the deep connection between art and wellness, and has prided itself as a place of inspiration, contemplation and community gathering. We hope to be able to open our doors again soon, and welcome you back to continue this tradition.

Warmly,

Dorothy Kosinski, Vradenburg Director and CEO
